2. Contract for Space. Deposit of applicant's check does not constitute contract acceptance. The application for space and the formal notice of assignment by Show Management and the payment of full rental fees constitute a contract for the right to use the space allotted only after it is accepted by Show Management. The NRA may, at its sole discretion, require an Exhibitor to move to a different exhibit space. Reason for such a move may include, but are not limited to: safety concerns; improvement of access, ingress, or egress; accommodation of other exhibitor(s); or the consolidation of unused space. In the event of fire, strikes, rioting, civil disorders or other circumstances making it impracticable, in the sole discretion of Show Management, to operate the Show, this contract shall become null and void.

3. Compliance with Federal, State and Local Laws. Exhibitors must agree to comply with all Federal, state, county and local fire, police, health or public safety laws, regulations or ordinances which are or may be applicable to the exhibit covered by this Agreement. Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining all necessary permits and paying all applicable taxes and fees.

If at any time before or during the show it appears that an Exhibitor may have violated any law, regulation or ordinance, or an Exhibitor engaged in any conduct that is offensive, immoral, unethical, or inconsistent with the nature of the Show, then Show Management may prohibit the Exhibitor from being and Exhibitor and/or attending the Show. A pro-rated refund of the amount paid for that Exhibitor's space shall be the sole remedy available for such a cancellation.

4. Restrictions on Use of Space. No Exhibitor shall assign, sublet or share the whole or any part of the space assigned. Exhibitor is not permitted to show goods other than those manufactured or dealt in by him in his regular course of business. Displays shall not be placed in such a manner as to interfere with other exhibits. The Exhibit Design and Construction Specification sheets that are included with the Exhibitor Service Manual will govern what Exhibitors can and cannot do with their booth(s). The actual projection of bullets, pellets, BBs, darts or any other missile is not permitted as part of any exhibit. Exhibitors building special background or side dividers must make certain that the surfaces of such dividers are finished in such a manner as not to be unsightly to Exhibitors in adjoining booths (no logos or graphics). If such surfaces remain unfinished at 5:00 pm of the day prior to the opening day of the Show, Show Management shall, at Exhibitor's expense, authorize the official decorator to effect the necessary finishing. All exhibits and displays must remain fully assembled during all open show hours.

5. Restrictions on Operation of Exhibits. No campaigning or political activities nor the promotion of any candidate will be permitted. NRA reserves the right to restrict exhibits which because of noise, method of operation, appearance or for any reason are objectionable in the sole judgment of NRA, and also to limit or prohibit any exhibit or evict any Exhibitor who, in the opinion of Show Management, may detract from the general character of the Show as a whole. This reservation includes persons, things, conduct, printed matter or anything of a character which Show Management deems to be objectionable. In the event of such restrictions or eviction, NRA is not liable for any refunds or rental or other costs incurred by Exhibitor or required to assign him other space. Any demonstration or activity that results in obstruction of aisles or prevents ready access to nearby exhibitors' booths as determined by Show Management shall be suspended for any periods specified by Show Management.

6. Booth Representatives. Booth representatives shall be restricted to Exhibitor's employees and authorized representatives. Booth representatives shall wear badge identification furnished by Show Management at all times. Show Management may limit the number of booth representatives at any time. 7. Care of Building and Equipment. Exhibitors or their agents shall not injure or deface the walls or floor of the building, the booths or the equipment of the booths. When such damage appears, Exhibitor is liable for the resulting Damages. Nothing may be attached to or supported by any part of the building other than the floor within the confines of the assigned exhibit space.

8. Union Labor. Exhibit site may be subject to labor union agreement(s). To the extent applicable, Exhibitor shall abide by all such agreements. These agreements may affect, among other matters, the installation and dismantling of an exhibit. Exhibitor is solely responsible for compliance with such agreements and payment for any services required by such agreements.

9. Resolution of Disputes. In the event of a dispute between any parties regarding the Show Terms, Rules and Regulations, all decisions made by NRA shall be binding on all parties.

10. Circulation and Solicitation. Exhibitor agrees to immediately remove offending signage upon notice from show management.

All infractions must be corrected before the exhibit will be allowed to open.

13. Fire Protection. Flammable liquids are prohibited. Flammable cloth decorations must be flame-proofed. All hangings must clear the floor. Electrical wiring must conform with the National Electrical Code Safety Rules. If inspection indicates that any Exhibitor has neglected to comply with these regulations or otherwise incurs fire hazards, Show Management reserves the right to prohibit all or such part of any exhibit as may be irregular.

14. Sound Level. Exhibits which produce or amplify sound must be conducted or arranged so that the noise resulting from the demonstration will not annoy or disturb adjacent Exhibitors or their visitors. Show Management deems that any audio equipment, whether in the booth or as part of the display, may not exceed a sound level of eighty-five (85) decibels. In the event that sound exceeds eighty-five (85) decibels or is determined, by Show Management, to affect neighboring exhibitors negatively, the offending exhibitor may be notified and asked to comply with the guidelines. 17. Lotteries/Contests. The operation of games of chance or lottery devices is permitted only to the extent permitted by law and with the prior written approval from Show Management. Such approval does not relieve the operator of such games or lotteries from determining the legality of its actions and does not relieve operator from responsibility for consequences for failure to comply with the law. In no event shall NRA Parties be responsible for any consequences resulting from the operator's failure to comply with the law.

18. Default. If Exhibitor defaults in any of its obligations under this Agreement or violates any of its obligations or covenants under this Agreement, including without limitation any Exhibition Rule or Regulation promulgated pursuant to the Agreement, Show Management may, without notice, terminate this Agreement and retain all monies received on account Show Management may thereupon direct Exhibitor forthwith to remove its employees, agents or servants, and all its articles of merchandise and other personal property from the space contracted for and from the Show. If exhibit space is not occupied by the time set for the completion of displays, such space may be possessed by Show Management for such purposes as it may see fit.
